GONE TO GUINEA

By Associated Press.

London, September 25.—The Official Press Bureau this afternoon issued the following statement:

"The Admiralty announces that a telegram has been received from Vice Admiral Sir George Patey, stating that the town and the harbor of Friedrich Wilhelm, the seat of government of Kaiser Wilhelm's Land (the name applied to the German portion of New Guinea), have been occupied by an Australian force without opposition."

By Associated Press.

London, Sept. 25.—The weather conditions, which were exceptionally favorable to modern military operations during the first six days of the war, have now changed radically and are in the main responsible for the lull prevailing in all the war areas, with the exception of the combined Montenegrin and Serbian assault on the coveted province of Bosnia.

Accompanying the reports of bad weather comes the ominous news of the presence of disease. Hungary has acknowledged an outbreak of cholera among her troops, and, while it is denied officially, the same scourge is said to have attacked the Serbian troops.

The operations in Alsace-Lorraine are said to have come to a complete stop, on account of snow storms. Rain and floods are reported also from the scene of the Galician operations and probably accounts for cessation of the Russian attack on the retreating Austrians.

Several of the great German siege guns have fallen into the hands of the enemy, having become steeped in the mud, and the French are now digging this artillery out. The same cause which led to their abandonment may prevent the allies turning them on their former owners.

The latest official communication from Paris said that the battle was developing on the left wing of the allies, that there was a lull in the center, and that the attacks on the allies' right have been repulsed.

Petrograd reports that Russian troops in pursuit of the Austrians are now within one march of the river Vistula, and the city of Parnow which is only two marches from Cracow, and connected by rail with Budapest and Vienna.

Copenhagen reports a great battle in East Prussia, the dispatches declaring also that a Russian army is marching on Breslau.

Dispatches from Nish, Serbia, report a continuous advance into Bosnia.

The exploits in India waters of the German cruiser Emden, which have been likened in the operations of the Alabama during the Civil War, have aroused keen interest here. But the daring onslaught of this vessel on Madras, which occurred Tuesday morning is believed to indicate that she is prepared for a spectacular exit from the scene of her triumph.

Snow in Alsace and rain elsewhere along the battle line in France have brought home to Englishmen the terrible ordeal their men have undergone and thousands are answering the appeals for blankets and overcoats. The plea went out today for football players and other athletes to contribute old sweaters and other warm clothing for the troops. Virtually all the newspapers carry, every day, advertisements calling on all old non-commissioned officers to rejoin their colors and aid in the training of recruits.

The very heavy loss of British officers is today a subject of much comment, editorial and otherwise, and if the present ratio of mortality is continued this loss of officers will be one of Great Britain's most serious problems.

Cabling from Amsterdam, the correspondent of the Central News says a telegram, received there from Maestricht, conveys the news that arrivals from Liege are declaring that the Germans are blowing up all the bridges in the vicinity of that city, that might be of strategic value to their enemy.

Telegraphing from Amsterdam, the correspondent of the Reuter Telegraph Company says the 31st German casualty list, carrying a total of about 1,000 men killed, wounded and missing, has been given out. It includes the names of 23 officers of one regiment, who were killed in five days' fighting.

Venice, Italy, via Paris, Sept. 25.—According to advices reaching here today from Trieste, several thousand wounded have been brought into that Austrian city in the past three days. Many public buildings, including theaters, are being converted into hospitals for them. A majority of the wounded came from Galicia and they relate tales of fearful hardship. For days at a time they were in wet clothing and, with the exception of plums, they had nothing to eat. The Russians have captured immense quantities of the winter clothing from the Austrian troops. The snow has begun to fall and the crops in the field are suffering from cold.

Paris, September 25.—The following official communication was given out in Paris this afternoon:

"First: On our left wing there has begun a general action of great violence between detachments of our forces and that operating between the river Somme and the river Oise and the army corps which the enemy has grouped in the region around St. Quentin.

"These army corps have come, some from the center of the enemy's line, and others from Lorraine and the Vosges. To the north of the river Aisne, as far as Berry-Au-Bac there has been no change of importance.

"Second: On the center we have made progress to the east of Rheims in the direction of Berry.

"Further to the east, as far as the Argonne region, the situation shows no change.

"Third: On our right wing, Lorraine and the Vosges, we have repulsed attacks of minor importance on Nomeny. To the east of Lunville the enemy has made some demonstrations along the lines of the river Vegouse and the river Blette."

By Associated Press.

Ostend, via London, Sept. 25.—A Zeppelin airship dropped three bombs in and about this city yesterday. One of them struck a bridge on the outskirts of the town, another fell in the harbor and another on the premises of a wholesale fish dealer in the fish market, partly wrecking the building. The explosion here made a great cavity in the ground and badly damaged all surrounding houses, extinguished street lamps, destroyed electric wires and created a panic.

The fish market in Ostend is near the railway station and on Wednesday and Fridays is crowded with purchasers. All sales are by auction to the highest bidder. From Ostend, as the crow flies, it is only about 70 miles across the North Sea and the Strait of Dover, to the English coast.

TO INVESTIGATE

By Associated Press.

Berlin, via Wireless to Sayville, L. I., September 25.—The German government has ordered that an exhaustive judicial inquiry be made at once by an independent lawyer into the destruction of the Belgian town of Louvain. An inquiry, already made, is declared to have proved that, on a signal given near the Louvain station by red and green rockets, the civilian population began firing on the German troops.

The Petit Parisien says that the French commander-in-chief has been compelled to send back the African troops transported to France, because they were not fitted out for a winter campaign. The strengthening of the French forces in Morocco is also reported to be necessary.

Telegram received here from Vienna declares 30,000 Servians invaded Austria. They entered Slavonian territory and built fortifications. The Austrian troops retreated. Suddenly they attacked the invaders from two sides near Jakova and took 7,000 prisoners. Many Servians were killed while others were drowned in the river Save.

Rio Janeiro, September 25.—The German steamer, Prussia, has arrived at Santos and landed the master and fifteen men of the British steamer, Indian Prince, which was sunk by the German auxiliary cruiser, Kron Prince Wilhelm.

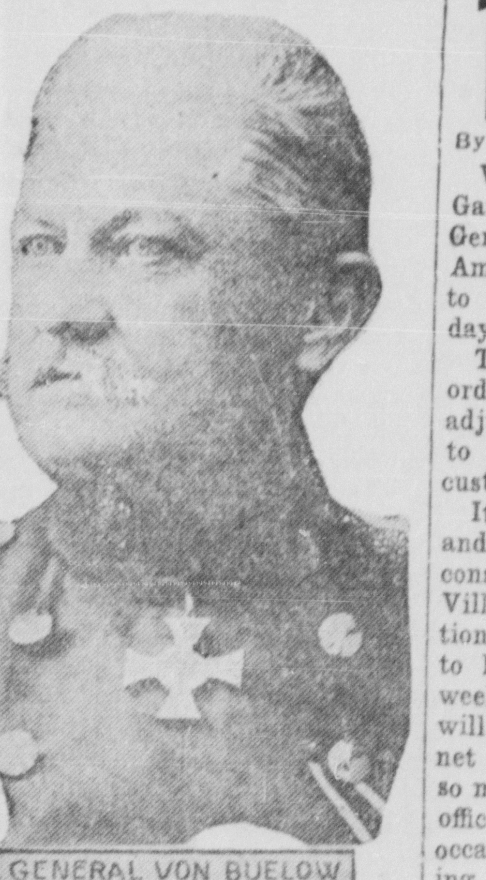

This is the first definite news of the Kron Prinz Wilhelm, a North German-Lloyd liner, since she was reported as having been seen transferring coal to the German cruiser, Karlsruhe, in West India waters. British cruisers came up while the transfer of coal was in progress and the Kron Prinz Wilhelm took to her heels, while the Karlsruhe and the British warships engaged in a long range running duel, which appears to have been without results.

Washington, Sept. 25.—At the direction of the President, Secretary Tumulty today wrote a letter to New Jersey democrats declining to have them endorse the President for a second term.

Secretary Tumulty's letter was to Edward E. Groscup, State Treasurer of New Jersey. It said in part:

"New Jersey is the President's home state, the men who would act in this matter are his own personal friends, and he feels that it might seem as if he were taking advantage of the extraordinary situation, now existing, to gain some personal advantage through such an expression of confidence by them.

"This would be inconsistent with his whole thought and spirit and he shrinks from it as from something that would embarrass him rather than help him."

It was understood the President decided not to allow the New Jersey Democrats to endorse him for a second term because it would look as though he were seeking renomination. His attitude, however, was not taken by friends here to mean that he has decided not to accept a renomination if it is offered to him.

Washington, Sept. 25.—Secretary Garrison today ordered Brigadier General Funston, commanding the American forces at Vera Cruz, not to withdraw during the next ten days.

The Secretary announced that the order was caused by a delay in the adjustment of many details, incident to the transfer of funds and the custom house.

It is understood President Wilson and Secretary Garrison have not yet considered the possible effect of the Villa revolt on the American evacuation and as Secretary Garrison plans to leave Washington today for the week end, it is probable the question will not be taken up until the cabinet meeting Tuesday. As there are so many other questions to be settled officials take the view that there is no occasion for a hasty decision concerning the troops.

OFFERS SUGGESTION TO REDUCE LIVING COSTS

Washington, D. C., September 25.—Food specialists of the Department of Agriculture who have been investigating the subject find that there is a wide variation in the prices asked for lamb and mutton in different cities and towns and even in different butcher shops in the same locality. In many places the prices asked by the pound for these foods closely approach those asked for beef and pork. In other places, owing to conditions of local supply, there is such a price difference between mutton and beef as to make mutton a relatively cheap food. The specialists of the Department of Agriculture find that in nutritive value and digestibility mutton is practically interchangeable with beef. The waste is about the same percentage, although mutton has a slight advantage over beef in containing less water.

In many markets where the pound price of mutton and lamb is high, careful shoppers will find that they can obtain this form of meat very much lower by buying hind-quarters or half carcasses instead of buying chops and roasts separately by the pound. In the case of a hind-quarter the chops can be cut off and served for one meal and the roast will serve for another meal. In this way the family frequently will obtain chops at a price per pound lower than that asked for roast alone by the pound. Where a half carcass is bought, in addition to the chops and roasts, the family will have a fore-quarter and meat for stewing. The sheep is very convenient for purchase in this way as it is small and can be kept in an ordinary refrigerator. Frequently families combine and buy a whole carcass and divide it, and in this case get still better prices and obtain expensive cuts at a low average per pound. The specialists of the Department advise women who find the cost of other meats oppressive to investigate these quantity buying methods and also to look into the differences in prices charged for lamb and mutton by different retailers in their neighborhood.

M'ADOO IS AFTER THE OFFENDERS

Will Publish List of Those Hoarding Their Reserves.

Washington, Sept. 25.—Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo followed up his remarkable charge that the banks of many sections are hoarding their reserves to an "unpatriotically high percentage" with two additional statements.

In one he gave the text of a telegram that he had sent to superintendents of banking in various states, asking that they furnish the treasury department with a daily statement as to the cash reserves of state banks, so that these might be published along with the lists of national banks who are hoarding their reserves. It is believed by publishing this list and thus directing public attention to the banks which are piling up reserves the secretary hopes to combat the existing stringency.

In his other statement Mr. McAdoo dealt with the inability of the state of Tennessee to float a loan of $1,400,000 on short term notes. The secretary announced that if an attempt being made in New York by Senator Luke Lea and members of the commission representing the state failed to obtain the desired loan, "I will myself see if banks can not be found to take up this loan."

NO TRACE OF SELMA YEGGS

Gang of Robbers Who Visited Selma and Cracked Safe, Still at Large, and Little Hope Remains of Apprehending the Sextette Who Were "Glimpsed" at Jeffersonville and Later Trained by Bloodhounds.

No further trace of the sextette of yeggs who visited Selma Wednesday night and cracked a safe, has been found, and the men are now believed to be many miles away from this part of the country, although the police here and elsewhere are keeping a sharp lookout for the gang of thugs. The gang used three charges of nitroglycerine upon the safe in the general store of R. G. Elder, at Selma, and the heavy concussion aroused the villagers, who immediately gave chase after the fleeing robbers, who obtained some $25 in cash and a gold watch, leaving several hundred dollars in a strong compartment which resisted efforts to crack it.

Selma has been the operations of a gang of crooks the past two years. In that time the postoffice has been burglarized twice and the Elder store has been burglarized twice besides numerous other smaller tricks.

Some belief exists that the jobs have been turned by the same gang, and that the gang resides in or near the little town in Clarke county.

FIRE PREVENTION DAY OCTOBER 9TH

Regarding the observance of Fire Prevention day, State Fire Marshal E. R. Deffenbaugh says in part:

"Governor Cox, in accordance with the custom of recent years, in this and many of our sister states, has designated Friday, October 9th, as Fire Prevention day.

This action has been induced by the large fire waste prevalent in our state and throughout the country, amounting last year in Ohio alone to almost $9,000,000.

"It has been frequently pointed out that largely more than fifty per cent of all our fires are easily preventable. This fact alone would be sufficient to justify the governor in his action and, indeed, more than justifies all public authority having to do with the question of fire waste, in doing the utmost to get and keep the facts before our citizens. If fires are to be prevented, however, it devolves upon the individual occupant to take the necessary steps. Fire departments can put out fires, and fire marshal can generally determine how they have started, but the individual citizen is the one who has it chiefly within his power to prevent them.

"In the year 1913, there were 5,340 fires reported to this department. Of this number 2,448, or well along towards half of them, occurred in dwellings. Defective flues caused 443 and sparks from chimneys, 347, while incendiarism was responsible for only 43. Thus, we find that statistics bear out the statement that a very large proportion of all fires are preventable. Had those flues been inspected and repaired, a large amount of property would have been saved instead of being reduced to a heap of ashes."

NO WORD FROM CHECK RAISER

Robert Graham, the man who is wanted for raising a check on Clarence Shepherd, of Johnson's Crossing, has not yet been located, and the supposition is that he has sought refuge in the hills of Kentucky.

The crime was committed last Saturday, and the man left immediately, leaving his wife and small child in a small car in which they had been living while Graham cut corn for Shepherd.

OFFERS SUGGESTION TO REDUCE LIVING COSTS

Washington, D. C., September 25.—Food specialists of the Department of Agriculture who have been investigating the subject find that there is a wide variation in the prices asked for lamb and mutton in different cities and towns and even in different butcher shops in the same locality. In many places the prices asked by the pound for these foods closely approach those asked for beef and pork. In other places, owing to conditions of local supply, there is such a price difference between mutton and beef as to make mutton a relatively cheap food. The specialists of the Department of Agriculture find that in nutritive value and digestibility mutton is practically interchangeable with beef. The waste is about the same percentage, although mutton has a slight advantage over beef in containing less water.

In many markets where the pound price of mutton and lamb is high, careful shoppers will find that they can obtain this form of meat very much lower by buying hind-quarters or half carcasses instead of buying chops and roasts separately by the pound. In the case of a hind-quarter the chops can be cut off and served for one meal and the roast will serve for another meal. In this way the family frequently will obtain chops at a price per pound lower than that asked for roasts alone by the pound. Where a half carcass is bought, in addition to the chops and roasts, the family will have a fore-quarter and meat for stewing. The sheep is very convenient for purchase in this way as it is small and can be kept in an ordinary refrigerator. Frequently families combine and buy a whole carcass and divide it, and in this case get still better prices and obtain expensive cuts at a low average per pound. The specialists of the Department advise women who find the cost of other meats oppressive to investigate these quantity buying methods and also to look into the differences in prices charged for lamb and mutton by different retailers in their neighborhood.

IMPORTANT TIME CHANGE ANNOUNCED

The exact time the trains will leave this city has not been officially announced, but it will be approximately as follows:

No. 10, north-bound, 2:30 a. m.
No. 9, south-bound, 11:35 a. m.
No. 1, south-bound, 7:00 p. m.

The greatest time changes, it will be noticed, are in the south-bound morning train and the north-bound afternoon train.

The official schedule will be announced as soon as obtainable.

M'ADOO IS AFTER THE OFFENDERS

Will Publish List of Those Hoarding Their Reserves.

Washington, Sept. 25.—Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo followed up his remarkable charge that the banks of many sections are hoarding their reserves to an "unpatriotically high percentage" with two additional statements.

In one he gave the text of a telegram that he had sent to superintendents of banking in various states, asking that they furnish the treasury department with a daily statement as to the cash reserves of state banks, so that these might be published along with the lists of national banks who are hoarding their reserves. It is believed by publishing this list and thus directing public attention to the banks which are piling up reserves the secretary hopes to combat the existing stringency.

In his other statement Mr. McAdoo dealt with the inability of the state of Tennessee to float a loan of $1,400,000 on short term notes. The secretary announced that if an attempt being made in New York by Senator Luke Lea and members of the commission representing the state failed to obtain the desired loan, "I will myself see if banks can not be found to take up this loan."

NO TRACE OF SELMA YEGGS

Gang of Robbers Who Visited Selma and Cracked Safe, Still at Large, and Little Hope Remains of Apprehending the Sextette Who Were "Glimpsed" at Jeffersonville and Later Trailed by Bloodhounds.

No further trace of the sextette of yeggs who visited Selma Wednesday night and cracked a safe, has been found, and the men are now believed to be many miles away from this part of the country, although the police here and elsewhere are keeping a sharp lookout for the gang of thugs.

The gang used three charges of nitroglycerine upon the safe in the general store of R. G. Elder, at Selma, and the heavy concussions aroused the villagers, who immediately gave chase after the fleeing robbers, who obtained some $25 in cash and a gold watch, leaving several hundred dollars in a strong compartment which resisted efforts to crack it.

Selma has been the operations of a gang of crooks the past two years. In that time the postoffice has been burglarized twice and the Elder store has been burglarized twice besides numerous other smaller tricks.

Some belief exists that the jobs have been turned by the same gang, and that the gang resides in or near the little town in Clarke county.

FIRE PREVENTION DAY OCTOBER 9TH

Regarding the observance of Fire Prevention day, State Fire Marshal E. R. Defenbaugh says in part:

"Governor Cox, in accordance with the custom of recent years, in this and many of our sister states, has designated Friday, October 9th, as Fire Prevention day.

This action has been induced by the large fire waste prevalent in our state and throughout the country, amounting last year in Ohio alone to almost $9,000,000.

"It has been frequently pointed out that largely more than fifty per cent of all our fires are easily preventable. This fact alone would be sufficient to justify the governor in his action and, indeed, more than justifies all public authority having to do with the question of fire waste, in doing the utmost to get and keep the facts before our citizens. If fires are to be prevented, however, it devolves upon the individual occupant to take the necessary steps. Fire departments can put out fires, and fire marshal can generally determine how they have started, but the individual citizen is the one who has it chiefly within his power to prevent them.

Hero of Devil's Island
Again in French Army.

"In the year 1913, there were 5,349 fires reported to this department. Of this number 2,448, or well along towards half of them, occurred in dwellings. Defective flues caused 443 and sparks from chimneys, 347, while incendiarism was responsible for only 43. Thus, we find that statistics bear out the statement that a very large proportion of all fires are preventable. Had those flues been inspected and repaired, a large amount of property would have been saved instead of being reduced to a heap of ashes."

Mexico Again in Turmoil

Is it possible that the bright hopes which the people of this land have had for peace and quiet in Mexico are doomed to result in disappointment?

That is the question which the peace loving people of a great nation anxious to aid the residents of a sister republic are anxiously asking themselves.

Not since Huerta was compelled to relinquish his arbitrary rule in Mexico has the prospect for permanent peace in that land been so gloomy.

Carranza the impractical, but well meaning leader of the Constitutional party, and Villa, the impossible leader of the ragged hordes of marauding soldiers have again disagreed as to the establishment of a civil government, and this time there seems to be little chance of the two men again joining hands in the work of re-establishing order and government in Mexico.

It is not strange that this peculiar partnership in patriotic work which bound those widely different types of men together while the active work of war against Huerta occupied their entire time and attention, should prove insufficient when the less exciting work of peace demanded their attention.

Villa is not, and never will be a man of peace, and now that the war against Huerta has been ended, it is not surprising that he should break with the man of peace and again seek the arena of war even though it necessitated a war of rebellion against the very government he sought to establish.

If the present rebellion in the state of Chihuahua, to which Villa is not extending aid and comfort should grow to dangerous proportions, and if the civil government of Carranza at Mexico City proves impotent to keep down revolt, then armed intervention by this nation seems certain.

The conditions at present existing in Mexico are not gratifying to the people of this land, and hold out little promise that at last the dangers of complications in Mexico are over.

The situation is one full of menace, and will require the closest attention of watchful administration at Washington, if this nation and this people are not to be caught in this awful twentieth century whirlpool of year.

Macadam Roads Are Wearing Out

That the question of how to build good roads which will last, is still unsolved, is evidenced by the rapidity with which some of the newly constructed good roads are going to pieces.

Constructed with either the asphalt or the water "binder" there is scarcely one of the new macadam pikes builded two years or more ago which does not show the effect of wear to the extent that top covering has entirely disappeared. Rough, jagged rocks have now made their appearance all over the surface of the road, deep ruts and gullies are worn and cut in the roadway, so that driving over them is really more unpleasant than over the roads constructed according to the old methods years ago.

The only roads which have proven worth the money they cost are the brick and cement roads, and to that material, unless another equally as good is soon discovered and its worth demonstrated, all road contractors and builders must turn for practical results.

There is no denying the fact that the "new idea" macadam roads of the state have been a distinct disappointment so far as durability is concerned.

The officials charged with the duty of spending the vast sums of public money on road construction would do well to abandon all costly macadam roads and confine their work to brick or cement.

These two road materials have been demonstrated to possess a durability commensurate with cost.

A few dollars saved now by using another and perhaps cheaper material will prove to be a wanton waste before very long.

It is not always a saving on first cost which is the best economy, and that is just as sound a doctrine in regard to road construction as to anything else.

Discipline Has Taught Germans to Control Themselves Even When Excited

By Captain K. BOY-ED of German Embassy

THE Germans are a peaceable and not an atrocious people. DISCIPLINE HAS TAUGHT THEM TO KEEP CONTROL OF THEMSELVES, EVEN WHEN EXCITED, and you may rest assured that when all the truth is known justification will be found for all the so called barbarities practiced by our troops.

MY EMPEROR IS MISUNDERSTOOD. IT HAS BEEN SAID THAT SOME GERMAN SOLDIER MAY SHOOT HIM IN ORDER TO STOP THE WAR, BUT I TELL YOU THAT NOTHING OF THE KIND WILL EVER OCCUR. KAISER WILHELM IS NOT A "WAR LORD" AND DOES NOT SEEK MILITARY FAME. IF HE IS PRIMARILY A BATTLE KING, WHY HAS HE GIVEN SO MUCH ENCOURAGEMENT TO HIS SCHOOLS, HIS SHIPPING, HIS MUSIC AND HIS CITIES, WHICH OTHER PEOPLE THE WORLD OVER HAVE COME TO STUDY? HE IS FIGHTING NOT IN SPIRE OF THESE THINGS, BUT FOR THEM, TO DEFEND THEM. THIS IS A WAR OF DEFENSE AND NOT OF OFFENSE, AND OUR EMPEROR AND THE TROOPS, WHO LOVE HIM, ARE BOUND TO WIN.

BIG SEIGE GUN AGAIN IN PLAY

Berlin, Sept. 25.—(By Wireless via Sayville, L. I.)—The war office in its official statement declares that the Germans are now bombarding the entire chain of the Meuse fortifications that extend from Verdun to Toul. It is stated that the great siege guns with which Maubeuge, Liege and Namur were demolished are being used with telling effect there, and that they are slowly battering the French fortresses to pieces. The war office also announces that the attempt of the allies to envelop the army of General Von Kluck on the extreme right of the German line has failed.

VILLA MOBILIZING TROOPS FOR WAR

May Take the Initiative Against General Carranza.

LATTER PREPARING TO RESIST

Old Federal Contingent in Mexico to Swing to Villa in the Present Revolution—Agents of the Warrior in Juarez Continue to Import Ammunition—Junta at Houston Well Healed Financially.

El Paso, Tex., Sept. 25.—General Villa has set to work mobilizing his troops for the war he has declared upon Venustiano Carranza, provisional president of Mexico.

Reports here said Carranza was rushing men north from Zacatecas and westward from Monterey against Villa's men at Torreon, contrary to Carranza's assurances to the United States that he would not attack Villa, but would prepare to resist if Villa should attack him.

Whether Villa is preparing to take the initiative in the fighting or is merely preparing to defend his own territory, he is mobilizing every available man at Torreon. All schedules on railroad lines in Villa's territory have been canceled and the concentration movement is being actively pushed. Instructions have been sent to the garrison commanders of all of the smaller towns to send all the men possible to Chihuahua to be sent south.

Villa's agents in Juarez continue to import ammunition, and recalled by wire part of eight carloads which he sent to Maytoreno in Sonora.

The old federal contingent in Mexico will swing to Villa in the present revolution, according to Carranza agents. The federal junta in Houston has been approached with the proposition that the federal strength be thrown to Villa. The junta at Houston, which is the headquarters for the juntas at San Antonio and New Orleans, is reported to have large financial backing.

Carranza supporters declared that through the influence of General Felipe Angeles, Carranza's deposed secretary of war, the financial backing of the old Diaz political party was being allied with the new Villa revolt.

Carranza Holds Up Vessel. Havana, Sept. 25.—The Ward liner Esperanza, from Progreso and Vera Cruz, arrived here twenty-four hours late. Her captain states that he was delayed by detectives employed by General Carranza, who boarded the vessel at Progreso and attempted to take off eleven prominent Huertista refugees from Vera Cruz. Captain Curtis firmly refused to give the men up.

BERLIN CLAIMS ALLIES FAILED

Amsterdam, Sept. 25.—A dispatch from Berlin transmits an official report given out at German army headquarters. It follows:

"The right wing of the German army, beyond the river Oise, has been engaged in battle with the French, who tried unsuccessfully to envelop it. Eastward, as far as the Argonne forest, there were no important engagements.

"To the east of the Argonne region, Varennes was captured, and the attack is proceeding. German troops attacking the French forts south of Verdun victoriously repulsed a violent counter attack made from Verdun, Toul and across the river Meuse. The heavy artillery used against Troyon-les-Paroisses, Camp Des Romains and Lunerville was visibly successful.

"In French Lorraine and on the Alsace frontier French advance guards have at some points been repulsed.

The situation is one full of menace, and will require the closest attention of watchful administration at Washington, if this nation and this people are not to be caught in this awful twentieth century whirlpool of year.

Macadam Roads Are Wearing Out

That the question of how to build good roads which will last, is still unsolved, is evidenced by the rapidity with which some of the newly constructed good roads are going to pieces.

Constructed with either the asphalt or the water "binder" there is scarcely one of the new macadam pikes built two years or more ago which does not show the effect of wear to the extent that top covering has entirely disappeared. Rough, jagged rocks have now made their appearance all over the surface of the road, deep ruts and gullies are worn and cut in the roadway, so that driving over them is really more unpleasant than over the roads constructed according to the old methods years ago.

The only roads which have proven worth the money they cost are the brick and cement roads, and to that material, unless another equally as good is soon discovered and its worth demonstrated, all road contractors and builders must turn for practical results.

There is no denying the fact that the "new idea" macadam roads of the state have been a distinct disappointment so far as durability is concerned.

The officials charged with the duty of spending the vast sums of public money on road construction would do well to abandon all costly macadam roads and confine their work to brick or cement.

These two road materials have been demonstrated to possess a durability commensurate with cost.

A few dollars saved now by using another and perhaps cheaper material will prove to be a wanton waste before very long.

It is not always a saving on first cost which is the best economy, and that is just as sound a doctrine in regard to road construction as to anything else.

Discipline Has Taught Germans to Control Themselves Even When Excited

By Captain K. BOY-ED of German Embassy

THE Germans are a peaceable and not an atrocious people. DISCIPLINE HAS TAUGHT THEM TO KEEP CONTROL OF THEMSELVES, EVEN WHEN EXCITED, and you may rest assured that when all the truth is known justification will be found for all the so called barbarities practiced by our troops.

MY EMPEROR IS MISUNDERSTOOD. IT HAS BEEN SAID THAT SOME GERMAN SOLDIER MAY SHOOT HIM IN ORDER TO STOP THE WAR, BUT I TELL YOU THAT NOTHING OF THE KIND WILL EVER OCCUR. KAISER WILHELM IS NOT A "WAR LORD" AND DOES NOT SEEK MILITARY FAME. IF HE IS PRIMARILY A BATTLE KING, WHY HAS HE GIVEN SO MUCH ENCOURAGEMENT TO HIS SCHOOLS, HIS SHIPPING, HIS MUSIC AND HIS CITIES, WHICH OTHER PEOPLE THE WORLD OVER HAVE COME TO STUDY? HE IS FIGHTING NOT IN SPITE OF THESE THINGS, BUT FOR THEM, TO DEFEND THEM. THIS IS A WAR OF DEFENSE AND NOT OF OFFENSE, AND OUR EMPEROR AND THE TROOPS, WHO LOVE HIM, ARE BOUND TO WIN.

Poetry For Today

THE BALLAD OF LOST SHIPS.

Riven and battered,
Beaten and scattered,
Vessels that started so valiantly
forth—
Ancient and weary,
Ragged and dreary,
Driven by whirlwinds to south and to north.

All your devotion
To the great ocean
Given and granted in pure heritage—
What has it brought you?
What has it taught you?
Only the might of the sea's deadly rage!

Gallant and daring,
Braving and faring,
With your own ship-bells a-ringing your knell—
On to your fruiting,
We stand saluting,
Heroes and victims, all hail and farewell!

BIG SEIGE GUN AGAIN IN PLAY

Berlin, Sept. 25.—(By Wireless via Sayville, L. I.)—The war office in its official statement declares that the Germans are now bombarding the entire chain of the Meuse fortifications that extend from Verdun to Toul. It is stated that the great siege guns with which Maunbeuge, Liege and Namur were demolished are being used with telling effect there, and that they are slowly battering the French fortresses to pieces. The war office also announces that the attempt of the allies to envelop the army of General Von Kluck on the extreme right of the German line has failed.

LATTER PREPARING TO RESIST

Old Federal Contingent in Mexico to Swing to Villa in the Present Revolution—Agents of the Warrior in Juarez Continue to Import Ammunition—Junta at Houston Well Healed Financially.

El Paso, Tex., Sept. 25.—General Villa has set to work mobilizing his troops for the war he has declared upon Venustiano Carranza, provisional president of Mexico.

Reports here said Carranza was rushing men north from Zacatecas and westward from Monterrey against Villa's men at Torreon, contrary to Carranza's assurances to the United States that he would not attack Villa, but would prepare to resist if Villa should attack him.

Whether Villa is preparing to take the initiative in the fighting or is merely preparing to defend his own territory, he is mobilizing every available man at Torreon. He schedules on railroad lines in Villa's territory.

BERLIN CLAIMS ALLIES FAILED

Amsterdam, Sept. 25.—A dispatch from Berlin transmits an official report given out at German army headquarters. It follows:

"The right wing of the German army, beyond the river Olse, has been engaged in battle with the French, who tried unsuccessfully to envelop it. Eastward, as far as the Argonne forest, there were no important engagements.

"To the east of the Argonne region, Varennes was captured, and the attack is proceeding. German troops attacking the French forts south of Verdun victoriously repulsed a violent counter attack made from Verdun, Toul and across the river Meuse. The heavy artillery used against Troyon-les-Paroches, Camp Des Romains and Laneville was visibly successful.

"In French Lorraine and on the Alsace frontier French advance guards have at some points been repulsed."

Newspaper Advertising

Goes direct to the people and the people constitute the buying public. Newspaper advertising not only talks but it emphasizes; it has the undivided attention of the reader and covers a field no salesman can hope to reach. There are many styles in newspaper advertising and the small announcement, which costs only five cents, is just as effective in its way as the larger one, which costs proportionately more. The benefits to be derived can not be measured by the size of the ad, for the very good reason that the small, inexpensive announcement invariably proves effective. Newspaper advertising costs from five cents up to any price the advertiser desires to pay.

WELL KNOWN FARMER SUFFERS SERIOUS INJURY EARLY TODAY

Mr. Enos Ortman Sustains Ugly Fracture of Right Leg and Bones Penetrate Soil to the Depth of Several Inches—Horse Becomes Frightened Near Sales Barn While Mr. Ortman Is On Way to This City.

Mr. Enos Ortman, well known farmer who resides west of this city on the Jamestown pike, suffered a serious injury Monday morning while driving into this city, when his horse became frightened and overturned the buggy, hurling Mr. Ortman to the earth so violently that his right leg was snapped below the knees and the bones cut through the flesh and penetrated several inches into the ground.

The shocking accident occurred on Dayton avenue, just west of the sales barn, shortly before ten o'clock, and Mr. Ortman was rushed to the office of local physicians where the work of dressing the injured limb was taken up.

Mr. Ortman suffered the most excruciating pain from the ugly wound. The bones had been snapped short off, and were covered with earth where they had penetrated the ground. Persons who were passing at the time rushed to his assistance, rendering all aid possible, while others stopped the horse and later placed it in the sales barn until relatives could remove it to the Ortman farm.

The break is of an unusually severe nature, and will require many weeks to heal. Mr. Ortman is about 60 years of age, and is one of the county's best known residents, and has a large number of relatives in and near this city.

NEW STREET MAY NOT BE READY UNTIL NEXT YEAR

Present indications are that the residents of Millwood and the English addition, as well as the many other citizens who would make use of the new street across Paint creek bottom, will not have an opportunity of using the new thoroughfare until next year some time, owing to continued delay on the part of the city authorities to take definite action toward constructing the road with as little delay as possible.

The bridge across the creek was completed last spring, it will be recalled, and hung high and dry above the surrounding territory for a long time. After the approaches had been constructed by the county, the city authorities then took action which has resulted in the eastern portion of the roadway being constructed and ready for the macadam.

At the present time all work is at a standstill, Service Director Gerstner having completed all the work authorized by the city council, and awaiting further orders.

The western part of the fill and roadway will, it is claimed, not be constructed until North street is cut down, which, in all probability, will not be before sometime next year.

As a result of the delay which gives promise of dragging over into next year, those who have long waited for the road to be constructed, are chafing under the great delay, and a committee may appear before the next session of the city council in an effort to obtain results.

POSTOFFICE IS CENTURY OLD

The Washington postoffice was established on July 7, 1813, with the appointment of Jesse Millikan as postmaster, and has been in continuous operation since that time—over 101 years.

This information has just been brought to light by Mr. Will L. Clark who is preparing historical data for the forthcoming "Fayette County History".

Not caring to trust to the memory of any living person relative to the history of the local postoffice, Mr. Clark made a request on the Postoffice Department at Washington, D. C., securing the date of the establishment of the local office and a complete list of the postmasters who have since served in this city, together with the date of appointment.

Mr. Clark has kindly consented to allow us to publish the list as furnished:

MAGAZINE STOLEN FROM PUBLIC LIBRARY

Unscrupulous persons are again causing annoyance at the Public Library, as was the case some months ago, by carrying away library property.

Friday morning, Miss Elizabeth Johnson, city librarian, discovered that a new Lippincott magazine, put in circulation only two days ago, had been removed from its case and a sample copy of the American City Magazine put in its place.

Miss Johnson had occasion to use the new Lippincott Thursday noon, so that the magazine must have been stolen some time Thursday afternoon or evening.

The library authorities are determined to put an end to the stealing of any public library property or to the defacing of any magazines or books by clippings taken. One case of this kind was vigorously taken up and the guilty party found. As reparation was made no action was taken, but hereafter theft in magazines, even though it may seem a small thing, will be punished to the full extent of the law.

HILLSBORO IS WITHOUT LIGHT

Hillsboro is in utter darkness, and may remain so indefinitely.

The trouble has arisen over a "hitch" between the city council, and the electric light company, with the result that the citizens are suffering great inconvenience and have been plunged back to the days when it was necessary to carry lights to get through the streets in safety.

As the scrap goes forward between the town and the light company, the citizens of Hillsboro are becoming more and more concerned, owing to the dangers that lurk in the darkness. An outbreak of burglaries and other crimes is expected to result in the town.

FIRST FOOTBALL GAME TOMORROW

The first football battle of the season in Washington C. H., will be waged tomorrow afternoon on Athletic field by the elevens of Circleville and Washington high schools.

Let it here be said that the organization of a strong high school squad this year has taken rapid strides during the past week, and, contrary to expectations, a truly formidable band of warriors have espoused to protect the colors of Washington high.

A number of players, heretofore reckoned to be ineligible, have made their mark and joined the squad, as well as a great deal of good material that failed to show up at the first call for volunteers. During the past few days Coach Schlabach has put his men through hard and systematic practice and it is with a feeling of confidence after all, that the high school faces the opening match of the season.

HUGE ENGINE AND GENERATOR

The Washington Gas & Electric Company has just completed the installation of a new and powerful engine and generator to bring the plant up to a still greater point of efficiency and handle the ever-increasing demand for power and light.

The new engine, a masterpiece of the Ball Engine Company, of Erie, Pa., develops as high as 305 horse power, and the new generator is of 185 K. W., and will be used to carry the day currents. The generator will be kept going approximately 18 hours each day.

Edward Feilhaber, an expert from the Queen City Engine Company was adjusting and testing out the new engine Friday, and E. D. Wood, of the General Electric Company, was adding the finishing touches to the generator and connections.

The new equipment will place the plant in position to handle a much greater amount of business than at the present time, and the plant is now filled with massive machinery.

Boundless Variety In Fashions for Fall

A SALE that will be a disappointment to our customers would better be a sale unmade. And we want you to feel that you must be satisfied, not only when you make your purchase, but all the time you are wearing anything from our Garment Department.

U NFOLDING of Fashions for Fall reveals a wealth of variety for the discriminating purchaser. Whether one wishes a coat, suit, dress, skirt or waist, she will find countless designs and innumerable cloths, all in good style and good taste. It is a season when each individual can select that which is most becoming to her, regardless of length or other minor details of Fashions.

The value of having a Fall Suit is wearing it before the coming of Zero weather.

Smart suits show development of the Redingote effect, many of these models being cut so that the coat is only four or five inches shorter than the skirt. Other suits, equally as good, are considerably shorter, but depend on the tunics of the skirts to furnish the fashionably long lines.

This is indeed the wonderful time of all the year—when Fashions change. And, as always before, we are prepared to offer you INDISPUTABLE ADVANTAGES in

Good Merchandise
Good Value
Good Service

If you are a woman you will immediately want these new autumn styles. Cases are filled with lovely coats and suits of all models and all lengths. Women are not sticking to any particular length, but are selecting that coat or that suit which makes her look her very best.

We want you to get the correct focus on the styles year, and feel that until you visit our store you will not see ALL that is correct.

It is this infinite variety which is making the American woman the best dressed in all the world. The tall woman, for instance, should not wear a garment designed for her shorter sister, and when we placed our orders we kept this and kindred facts constantly in mind.

The result is that our selection is complete. We have catered to all classes and to all pocketbooks.

You should see the lovely Coats we are showing—coats of British Bradford baby lamb, rich and durable, of lustrous Zibelines, chiffon finish d broadcloths and mannish mixtures. There are other coats built on the Redingote lines—Some almost full length. Others are somewhat shorter and all will be becomingly worn this season by the careful dressers here.

Suit Surprises for Young Women

We have made it a point this season to look after the wants of the younger women. Most of these have been stocked in but one of a kind, so there will be ample variety for all. This is true not only of coats and suits, but also of skirts. The new hip yoke effects, many of them braid bound, are graceful indeed. When you are inspecting coats and suits we ask that you give a few minutes to our showing of skirts.

When it comes to Coats you will be surprised to see what

Ten or Fifteen Dollars Will Do

Coats with the basque effect are being worn for dressy occasions, and we have developments of this in the popular priced numbers. No matter if you wish a coat for the smallest price we can insure you the same service that you would expect if your purchase for an outer garment was to be $25 or $35.

The illustrations give but a small idea of the variety in our department. You will note that both long suits and short suits are shown, and the same is true of coats.

The imported materials, such as British Baby Lamb, English Zibeline, German Astrachan, English Inverness Cloaking, are impossible to obtain now in the piece goods state. We foresaw, of course, this condition and placed order on cloaks in these fabrics in plenty of time.

The result is that we have the goods on display. The present supply, naturally, is the last. The let-up in shipping foreign materials has boomed the business of American mills to the extent that desirable domestic cloths will be very scarce, especially because the dyes of Europe are almost exclusively used in American milled piece goods.

Twelfth Day of Battle Sees No Decision.

Town of Peronne Taken After a Sharp Conflict.

ENVELOPING MOVEMENT FAILS

Berlin Reports That the Attempt to Encircle the German Right Proved Unsuccessful—French Forts South of Verdun Violently Attacked—Lull Reported in the Fighting in the Center—Officials Reports of the Great Battle.

Paris, Sept. 25.—The brief official communication issued by the government announces that on the allies' left wing the battle continues to develop; that a lull has occurred in the fighting in the center and that on the right wing the German attacks apparently have been checked.

Heavy artillery continues to play a leading part in the battle of the Aisne, which has now been in progress a fortnight. With the greatest stubbornness the opposing forces continue to hammer away at each other from their well entrenched and strongly fortified positions, but up to the present, without reaching any decision.

Great shells are being hurled across the rivers, valleys and plains stretching from the river Oise in the west to the Meuse in the east and thence southward along the whole Franco-German border, while the lighter guns of the infantry lying in the trenches await an opportunity to deliver attacks and counter attacks with, as the French official communication says, "alternate retirement on certain points and advance on others."

Both Claim Progress.
The battle line has stretched out further to the westward, the French left wing having made some progress in the direction of oye, which lies to the northwest of Noyen. The latter place a few days ago was the allies' extreme left. A detachment has occupied Peronne, seventy-five miles northwest of Paris.

A report from German headquarters says, however, that the efforts of the French to encircle the German right have had no result.

The French also claim to have made an advance to the northwest of Berry-Au-Bac, which is about the point where the German line crosses the Aisne, continuing southeast to Brimont, which has been the center of many vigorous attacks.

Along the rest of the line, although there have been fierce engagements, in which both sides claim victory, the situation is unchanged except that, according to German reports, the German troops have recaptured Varennes, department of Meuse, which the French took a few days ago.

AIRSHIPS WILL ATTACK FLEET

London, Sept. 25.—A dispatch from Berlin says: "It is stated by a high authority that practically all Zeppelins are centered around the North sea, where they are to assist in an attack on the British fleet. The outcome of such a battle will be highly important, for it will determine whether a dirigible can measure up against a warship. If it can, the German fleet will not be greatly outnumbered in the conflict about to take place, for the British fleet is insufficiently supplied with balloon guns, only a few of these being in existence. The bombs used by the Zeppelins are said to be twelve inches in diameter and two feet long. The damage they can do is terrific. Houses in the neighborhood of the explosion collapse as though made of cards, and they can tear up streets for a distance of scores of yards."

BOMBARD MADRAS

London, Sept. 25.—The German cruiser Emden, which has been operating against British shipping in the Bay of Bengal, furnished another diversion to the British public by a sudden descent on Madras, India, and a brief bombardment of that port. The damage done by the Emden's fire is said here to be small.

GERMANS HONOR SUBMARINE CREW

Amsterdam, Sept. 25.—It is officially announced at Berlin that the submarine U-9, commanded by Lieutenant Commander Weddigen, which successfully torpedoed and sank three British armored cruisers in the North sea on Tuesday, escaped unhurt from the guns of the cruisers and their accompanying destroyers. Commander Weddigen and the entire crew of the submarine have been decorated with the iron cross for their excellent work. It was also officially announced that the British cruiser Pathfinder, sunk in the North sea, was torpedoed by the U-21, and did not hit a mine.

A banquet at the Vendome hotel, followed by a reception in the auditorium of the temple, concluded the congress. National officers were elected as follows: President, John J. Lentz, Columbus; vice president, J. W. Berns, Detroit; secretary, Dr. George W. Hoglan, Columbus; surgeon, Dr. W. J. Means, Columbus; counselor, John V. Sees, Huntington, Ind.; auditor, James J. Thomas, Columbus; organizer, Charles E. Hill, Grand Rapids, Mich.; chaplain, Miss Adelia Hunter, Erie, Pa. The organization now has more than 29,000 members.

EXPECT LONG WINTER WAR

Paris, Sept. 25.—The Temps, in the course of an article calling on the government to take proper measures to see that the soldiers do not have to undergo unnecessary hardships in the winter, says: "The eventuality of a winter campaign ought not to be a surprise to anyone knowing the military power and resources of the enemy. Our tactics, which have consisted from the beginning in wearing him down methodically until the hour strikes for a successful offensive, imply operations of a certain duration."

LEGIONS NEARING GERMAN BORDER

TERRIFIC CONFLICT IMPENDING

Million German and Austrian Troops Concentrating on the Frontier to Save the Kaiser's Territory From Invasion—Austrians Unable to Hold Czar's Warriors in Galicia and Russian Poland.

London, Sept. 25.—The news of the war in the eastern zone is that the immense forces of Russia are rapidly nearing the German frontier on a line of advance 150 miles wide.

London expects within a week to hear of a pitched battle as vast as that of the Aisne, between 1,000,000 Germans and Austrians who are concentrating on this line to save the Kaiser's territory from 1,500,000 Russians.

Dispatches from Rome, St. Petersburg and Amsterdam confirm previous intimations that all attempts to hold the Russians within Galicia and Poland until the combats in the west are decided, have failed, and that the Germans would withdraw from Russian territory and combine with the Austrian forces in a final effort to block the Russians from Prussia and Silesia.

It is now certain that the Russian advance is a double movement. A great army is moving westward from Warsaw and the south for the purpose of striking at Posen, while another army is co-operating by an advance against Cracow.

Austrians Surrounded.

The Russian minister of war announced that the Russian advance through Galicia has arrived at the river Wisloka, which runs north and south about sixty-five miles east of Cracow and bisects the main line of railroad from Lemberg to the German frontier. It is asserted also that a large Austrian field force is still resisting south and west of Przemysl, now being bombarded by the Russians; but since the Russians to the northward are much farther toward Cracow, it is assumed that the force is practically surrounded. The greater part of the Austrians have been retreating toward Cracow in an attempt to combine with the Germans.

Occupation of Vislok, on the Hungarian border, southwest of Przemysl, officially announced by the Russian government, seals the fate of that fortress, in the opinion of military experts, since it prevents the Austrians sending reinforcements through the Carpathians. At the same time it puts Russian troops in the rear of an Austrian army which attempted to stand near Przemysl after being blocked in a retreat along the northern line from Jaroslaw and Przemysl.

London, Sept. 25.—The news of the war in the eastern zone is that the immense forces of Russia are rapidly nearing the German frontier on a line of advance 150 miles wide.

London expects within a week to hear of a pitched battle as vast as that of the Aisne, between 1,000,000 Germans and Austrians who are concentrating on this line to save the Kaiser's territory from 1,500,000 Russians.

Dispatches from Rome, St. Petersburg and Amsterdam confirm previous intimations that all attempts to hold the Russians within Galicia and Poland until the combats in the west are decided, have failed, and that the Germans would withdraw from Russian territory and combine with the Austrian forces in a final effort to

WHEAT SOWING TIME AT HAND

September 25th to 30th is recommended by State Experiment Station Experts as Time to Sow Wheat in This County—Large Acreage.

Now is the time for Fayette farmers to begin sowing wheat—according to the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station experts, who recommended September 25th to 30th as the best time for wheat sowing in order to checkmate the Hessian fly and prevent great damage to the crop next year.

The Hessian fly finds early sown wheat a fertile field for operations, and as a result the damage comes to light the following spring when vast numbers of the destructive pests are found in the wheat.

In the late sown wheat the pest has very little opportunity of working to advantage, owing to the fact that by the time the wheat is large enough for successful work upon the part of the insect, it has passed away after having deposited its eggs elsewhere.

The acreage of wheat in Fayette county is going to be large, as farmers anticipate top prices for their grain next year.

A large number of the farmers have begun sowing wheat and many have quite a little of their wheat in the ground.

CHIEF ALLABACK PASSES THROUGH

Chief of the Dayton Police Department, J. N. Allaback, and Mrs. Allaback, passed through this city Thursday on their way to Sulphur Lick Springs to spend a week or ten days. Like a great many other Daytonians, Chief Allaback spends several days each year at the well known health resort.

In an interview with a Herald reporter Chief Allaback stated that the Commission form of government is proving a success in Dayton, and will continue to become more successful as the financial condition of the erstwhile flood stricken city improves.

RALLY DAY.

The Sunday school of the First Baptist church will observe Rally Day on Sunday, October 4th. A special effort is being made to have a full attendance of both old and new scholars present on that day and thereafter. A special program is being prepared and everything points to a very successful rally.

BLOOMINGBURG PROPOSES ENLARGED SCHOOL DISTRICT

The Board of Education of the Bloomingburg school district, is out with a proposition to the adjoining school districts to join in the re-establishment of the lines, under which a great deal more territory will be annexed to the Bloomingburg school district. In the event that the plan succeeds, the territory thus annexed will be assessed for the maintenance of the enlarged district and wagons will be used to gather up and haul children to and from the centralized school in the town of Bloomingburg.

DISTRICT PROPOSED.

Starting on the line of Marion and Union townships, two miles by road from the Bloomingburg school house by the most direct route, running in a westerly direction to a point in the Columbus and Washington pike, two miles from the Bloomingburg school house by the most direct route, thence in a direct line to a point in the Devalon road, one-half mile south of said roads intersection with the Bloomingburg and New Holland pike, thence to a point in the Bloomingburg and New Holland pike, three-fourths of a mile southwest from the intersection of the Bloomingburg and New Holland pike and the Lewis pike; thence parallel with the Lewis pike to a point in the Midway pike, two miles by the most direct route to the Bloomingburg school house; thence to a point in the Danville pike three miles by most direct route to the Bloomingburg school house; thence to the intersection of the Post road and the Washington and Columbus pike and extending one-half mile beyond; thence to the origin.

It is argued by those proposing the change that the plan will provide for seven country schools situated within the new lines, and that under the new school laws, six of these schools must be closed for lack of pupils. It is also claimed that the hauling of these pupils to Bloomingburg will require only two wagons, whereas if a point not so centrally located as Bloomingburg is selected, at least six wagons will be required.

It is estimated that at an annual expense of $6900, a first grade school can be maintained, with four primary teachers, costing $2000; three high school teachers at $2100; janitor, $400; two wagon drivers, $900; sinking fund, $1000, and contingent fund, $500.

To raise this sum a school tax of 3½ mills will be required on a duplicate valuation of $1,960,000 in the proposed new district divided as follows:

In Paint township, estimated area included 12 square miles, 7680 acres, at $87 per acre, value $668,160.

In Union township, estimated area 4½ square miles, 2880 acres, at $108 per acre, value $311,040.

In Marion township, estimated area 2½ square miles, 1600 acres, at $83 per acre, value $132,800.

In Madison township, estimated area, 1½ square miles, 960 acres at $82 per acre, value $78,720.

Bloomingburg corporation, ½ sq. mile, $369,570.

Personal property, $340,000.

Railroad tracks, $60,000.

Total, $1,960,290.
